

E♭

Di Grine Kuzine

Abe Schwartz

A ♩ = 100
Bm Pattern: AABB AABB AA

9 Bm Em F#7 Bm Em

17 Bm Em F#7 Last time to Coda Bm Bm 1. 2.

26 B Bm

36 Bm Em F#7 Bm 1. 2.

45 typical klezmer ending

"Di Grine Kuzine" (The Greenhorn Cousin) is a Yiddish song expressing the disillusionment of Jewish immigrants who arrived in America with dreams of a "golden land" but instead encountered harsh economic realities and difficult living conditions. The "greenhorn" refers to a naive newcomer, and the song contrasts the ideal with the bitter reality of sweatshops and hardship, reflecting the immigrant experience in the early 20th century.