

Tuba

Di Grine Kuzine

Abe Schwartz

A ♩ = 100
Dm

Pattern: AABB AABBA

Am

E7

Am

A7

9

Dm

Gm

A7

Dm

Gm

17

Dm

Gm

A7

Last time to Coda

Dm

1.

2.

26

B

Dm

36

Dm

Gm

A7

Dm

1.

2.

ending 45

"Di Grine Kuzine" (The Greenhorn Cousin) is a Yiddish song expressing the disillusionment of Jewish immigrants who arrived in America with dreams of a "golden land" but instead encountered harsh economic realities and difficult living conditions. The "greenhorn" refers to a naive newcomer, and the song contrasts the ideal with the bitter reality of sweatshops and hardship, reflecting the immigrant experience in the early 20th century.